under a U.S. military contract under the following conditions—

- (1) The Department of Defense certifies to the Administrator that the operation is essential to the national defense:
- (2) The Department of Defense further certifies that the certificate holder cannot perform the operation without deviation authority;
- (3) The certificate holder will perform the operation under a contract or subcontract for the benefit of a U.S. armed service; and
- (4) The Administrator finds that the deviation is based on grounds other than economic advantage either to the certificate holder or to the United States.
- (d) In the case where the Administrator authorizes a deviation under this section, the Administrator will issue an appropriate amendment to the certificate holder's operations specifications.
- (e) The Administrator may, at any time, terminate any grant of deviation authority issued under this section.

§ 119.57 Obtaining deviation authority to perform an emergency operation.

- (a) In emergency conditions, the Administrator may authorize deviations if—
- (1) Those conditions necessitate the transportation of persons or supplies for the protection of life or property; and
- (2) The Administrator finds that a deviation is necessary for the expeditious conduct of the operations.
- (b) When the Administrator authorizes deviations for operations under emergency conditions—
- (1) The Administrator will issue an appropriate amendment to the certificate holder's operations specifications; or
- (2) If the nature of the emergency does not permit timely amendment of the operations specifications—
- (i) The Administrator may authorize the deviation orally; and
- (ii) The certificate holder shall provide documentation describing the nature of the emergency to the certificate-holding district office within 24 hours after completing the operation.

§ 119.59 Conducting tests and inspections.

- (a) At any time or place, the Administrator may conduct an inspection or test to determine whether a certificate holder under this part is complying with title 49 of the United States Code, applicable regulations, the certificate, or the certificate holder's operations specifications.
 - (b) The certificate holder must-
- (1) Make available to the Administrator at the certificate holder's principal base of operations—
- (i) The certificate holder's Air Carrier Certificate or the certificate holder's Operating Certificate and the certificate holder's operations specifications; and
- (ii) A current listing that will include the location and persons responsible for each record, document, and report required to be kept by the certificate holder under title 49 of the United States Code applicable to the operation of the certificate holder.
- (2) Allow the Administrator to make any test or inspection to determine compliance respecting any matter stated in paragraph (a) of this section.
- (c) Each employee of, or person used by, the certificate holder who is responsible for maintaining the certificate holder's records must make those records available to the Administrator.
- (d) The Administrator may determine a certificate holder's continued eligibility to hold its certificate and/or operations specifications on any grounds listed in paragraph (a) of this section, or any other appropriate grounds.
- (e) Failure by any certificate holder to make available to the Administrator upon request, the certificate, operations specifications, or any required record, document, or report is grounds for suspension of all or any part of the certificate holder's certificate and operations specifications.
- (f) In the case of operators conducting intrastate common carriage operations, these inspections and tests include inspections and tests of financial books and records.
